On January 3, 2018 Robert "Bob" Ferralasco submitted his letter to the Board of Directors retiring from the Foundation board after twenty-two years of service. He served as Secretary from 2015—2018. V. H. (Bud) Kays, son of the University's first president V. C. Kays, invited Bob to serve on the Kays Foundation board in 1996.

On May 8, 2018 the Board of Directors had a dinner to acknowledge Bob's retirement and to present him with a gift and a Resolution thanking him for his service and dedication to the Foundation Board and Arkansas State University.

Meet & Greet

In May and October 2018 the Foundation held two Meet & Greets at the Foundation offices in which all faculty, staff, and entities were invited to an informal setting to discuss grant opportunities.

Students using the new Standing lift in the Physical Therapy Dept.

2016-2017 Grant

Kays Foundation awarded the Arkansas State University Physical Therapy Department funds to purchase a ArjoHuntleigh Sara 3000 Power Standing Lift which is a standing and raising aid used for patient handling activities. The equipment was received and implemented in the fall of 2017 in the lab-based courses related to patient care and allows students to be better prepared to use equipment that they will use in a clinical setting outside the class room.
